The Einhell TE-CD 12 Li-i cordless impact drill makes it possible: Screwdriving & drilling, augmented by an impact drilling function, a practical helper in the home & workshop. Thanks to the Li-ion technology, the rechargeable battery gets charged up quickly and is always ready for use - and without self-discharging either. For working with precision there is electronic speed control with 22 settings. The LED lighting lights up the dark for optimum illumination. For exceptionally easy handling and guiding with precision it has a slimline and ergonomic design with a Softgrip. The 2-speed gearing enables powerful screwdriving /drilling and the impact drilling function makes it suitable for universal work. Supplied in a storage box.
