Brother Tape TZ-FX241 label-making tape:

Brother's Flexi ID tape offers a reliable and secure solution to industrial labelling applications. Using P-touch laminated labelling technology, Flexi ID tape is made with special material designed for labelling over acute edges and around cylindrical surfaces. The tapes can be used wrapped or flagged securely around cables, wires, labelling over edges, around hydraulic and electrical connectors and marking tubing. The more advanced P-touch label printers also offer a "Rotate and Repeat" function whereby the text is rotated to appear along the width of your label and then repeated so as to make it clearly visible from all sides, when wrapped around for example wire, pipes, laboratory equipment ect.
