Braun BC06W Quartz clock Round White:

The BC06W classic wall clock has an easy to read dial layout and a timeless design, honouring Rams's 10 principles. The design originates from the ABW 41, designed in 1981 by Dietrich Lubs, an example of classic functionalism and restrained design.

The BC06 classic wall clock features a 20cm diameter dial and is the ultimate embodiment of Braun’s ‘less but better’ philosophy. Even the lens has been removed to ensure legibility from any angle without the risk of unwanted reflections. The clock has been updated to include an improved movement which is quiet and precise. The Braun classic analogue wall clock is the perfect addition to any space.

Made to last from reliable and durable raw materials, today’s award-winning range of Braun clocks are designed and built with a focus on quality and precision.
