UPS Logistics set

Siku 6324 play vehicle/play track:

The brown UPS delivery vans have formed part of the street scene for decades. The rushing delivery men jump out of their vehicles and hurry with the package to the customer. But how does the package reach the delivery man? With the UPS logistics set, the complex logistics of package delivery become easy to understand, and are an exciting play subject. The set consists of a forklift truck, a 3-axle tractor unit and a delivery van in the typical UPS colour scheme. The lifting frame of the Linde forklift truck can be moved, and the box attachments can thus be loaded. For this, the rear flaps can be opened. The driver's cab and the chassis of the 3-axle tractor unit and of the centre-axle trailer are made of metal. And the delivery van is made completely of metal.
