USB Card Reader Holder

KYOCERA 870LS95009 holder Passive holder Smart card reader Black:

KYOCERA's USB card reader portfolio is designed for seamless integration of KYOCERA devices into existing security measures.

By swiping the ID media in front of the card reader, the user logs onto the device and can access the device's functions and retrieve printouts. The USB card readers can be used for local authentication without any additional software, or combined with server solutions for more advanced functions.
